

Release notes

Release 2.0 – Updated May 28, 2013

Description

Are you planning on getting a pet but you're not sure if you'll be able to handle it properly? Then this is the app for you. With "Ready for a pet?" you or your kids will experience all the fun but also all the work with raising a pet by fostering your own virtual pet.

You can make your pet feel well, or at least survive, by feeding it, play with it, make it sleep and take long walks with it. This is a fun and learning application that you need to try out. Download it now and you won't get disappointed!

New features

- Take your dog out for a walk, and while doing it the distance you walk is measured.
- When playing with the dog you can take a picture of a dog's face, and then, surprise!
- Make your dog sleep to increase its mood.
- New sound effects and animations to improve the satisfaction when playing.
- The dog can now die if you do not take care of it properly.
- You are now able to save the mood and see how old it has gotten.

Changed

- The dogs look and the background is different.
- The theme music is new.
- The play activity is more developed.
- The walk activity is more developed.
- The main activity is more developed.

Known bugs

- When taking a photo with androids that has different screen size the picture's position on the dog can be different.
- When taking the photo the picture can turn 90 degrees or 180 degrees depending on the android device that is used. On some devices this is not a problem.

Upcoming features

- Choose between different pets to take care of.
- Play and walk with pets from other users of the application.
